

Junior Integrator Test

Using the product HP EliteBook Folio 1040 G1, create a fancy Landing page. The page should reveal the benefits of the product as showed in the screenshots attached in zip file.

Purpose

The purpose of the test is to evaluate the code you are about to create. HTML CSS and JS. So please keep in mind code quality and W3C validation.

We'll need the mobile version as well.

Up to you to make it responsive or to prepare a mobile version.

You can use the graphics/assets attached into this zip file.

Feel free to use any extra resources like js frameworks, any plugins or fonts to reach that fancy and beautiful feeling we're asking for. Like animations in hero slider, fade in/out for elements on viewport appearing, responsive semi transparent sticky menu, animated icons and so on... Keep it creative. Up to you.

Requirements:

- Hero block with 4 slides animated slider.
- Fancybox/modal for embed youtube content.
- Mobile version or fully responsive
- W3C validation passed
- Keep an eye on performance
- Able to be up and running in a local environment. No server/localhost side needs.
